Paper Mountain Scene

To create this beautiful mountain scene, all you need to do is tear some colorful paper, no drawing or painting needed! Use Encyclopedia Britannica, found through the library catalog, to read about and see pictures of mountains for inspiration.

Materials

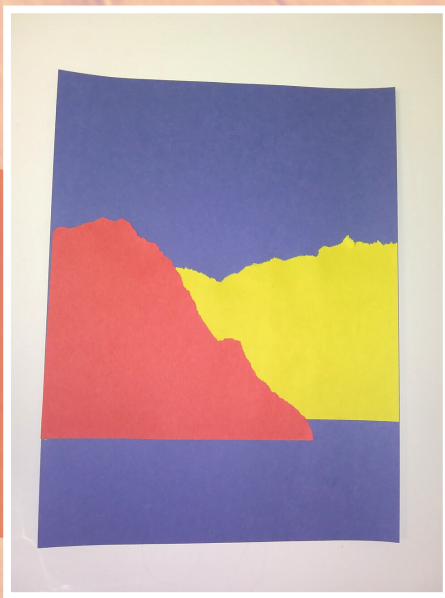

- colored construction paper (Including blue)
- glue stick or white glue
- optional: pens or markers

JAFFREY PUBLIC LIBRARY

Step 1.

Rip three or four pieces of construction paper to create your mountains. Don't rip the blue paper, you'll need the full sheet for Step 2. Don't forget to make some clouds out of white!

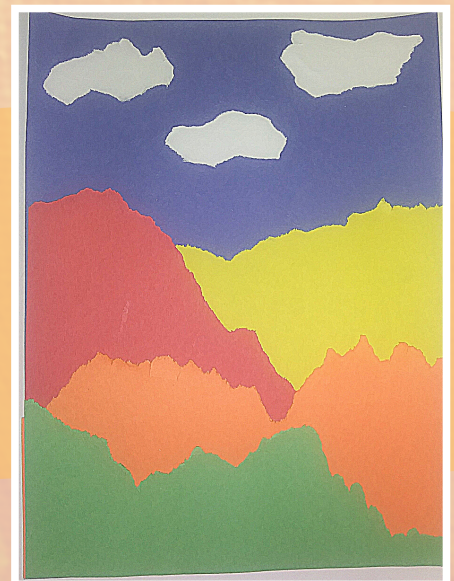

Step 2.

Arrange the ripped pieces on your blue paper to create mountains and clouds. Try them out in different orders.

Step 3.

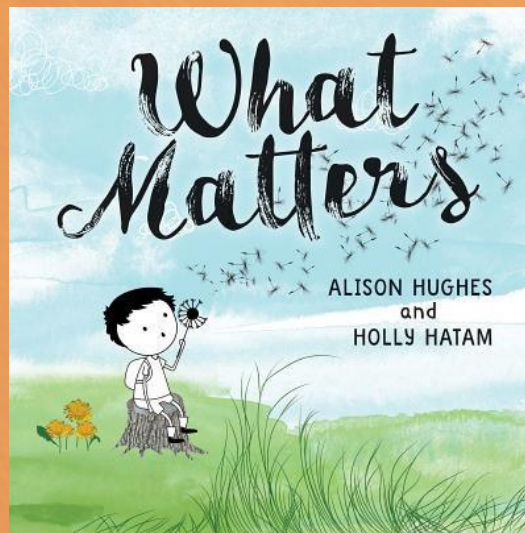

Once you've decided on a pattern, glue the mountains in place.

Optional: Decorate your scene by drawing little people, houses, or animals!
